Christmas in the Carolinas

The 2nd Annual Christmas competition sanctioned by "Images of the King" will feature performances of up to thirty (30) Elvis Tribute Artists, from across the country, competing for Cash Prizes and the right to compete in the 2009 World Finals. Rick Wade, a nationally recognized Elvis Tribute Artist emcee the competition and closing show. These artists will be performing songs from Elvis' many Christmas albums, as well as many of his other hits. To complement the musical centerpiece of this event, there will be food vendors; Elvis merchandise vendors, arts, crafts, gifts, and service vendors catering to the Christmas shopper. All designed to make this two-day event a festive occasion.
